N.A.S.
Bill Jones, attorney for N.A.S and Mary Jean Riley were in attendance to ask the court to pass the first reading of a bond ordinance for their 10th expansion project. They also requested an easement from the county to build a truck bridge across Hwy 42 to alleviate traffic congestion. After some discussion, Magistrate Bates made a motion to have the first reading of the ordinance (which includes the above-mentioned easement). Magistrate Bowling 2nd. All in favor. Motion carries.

County Attorney Nick Marsh read the ordinance by summary.

Health Insurance
Scott Brown with Phil Brown Insurance Agency was on hand to deliver the renewal quote from Humana for employee health insurance for the 2016 calendar year. After speaking with Humana, they agreed to keep the premiums the same for the coming year with the provision that the county did not take bids to market this year. After some discussion, Magistrate Bates made a motion to renew coverage with Humana for the coming year, keeping the rates unchanged. Magistrate Bowling 2nd. All in favor. Motion carries.

Judge Westrick informed those in attendance he had requested someone from the board be in attendance to explain the tax they will be imposing next year. However, no one was able to attend. Judge Westrick will reach out to them again and see if someone can come to a future meeting. This is not a tax imposed or passed by the Carroll County Fiscal Court. It is completely authorized through the Carroll County Extension Service District Board.

Senior Citizens Center
As of October 23, Senior Services of Northern Kentucky has dissolved and no longer manages the Carroll County Senior Center. The county has taken over management of the center and NKADD is continuing Meals on Wheels and continues to support our center. Currently, we are depending on volunteers, until a finalized plan can be determined.

CMW—Baseball Pavillion
Phase 1 of the project will include pavilion, drainage and lighting. The court discussed using concrete and metal for the structure, handrails and stairs. After the discussion, Judge Westrick made a motion authorizing CMW to proceed with writing up bid specs for the project. Magistrate Bowling 2nd. All in favor. Motion carries.
